

Online Meeting Guidelines for the Trigeminal Neuralgia Association National Zoom Webinar

Medical Guidance: Participants are expressly prohibited from dispensing or soliciting medical advice on medication or medical procedures. Guidance of this nature must only be given by medical professionals duly identified and qualified.

Technology Etiquette: Participants shall maintain their cameras and microphones in an off position unless otherwise directed by the host, in order to preserve the integrity and orderly conduct of the meeting.

Respectful Communication: Use of offensive language, personal attacks, harassment or any other forms of disrespectful communication will not be tolerated under any circumstances.

Intellectual Property and Recording: Unauthorised recording, reproduction or distribution of the meeting content is strictly prohibited. TNA retains all rights and ownership of all content.

Advertising and Promotions: Promotion or advertisement of trials, studies, products or services is forbidden without prior written consent from the TNA's CEO.

Accessibility: Reasonable accommodations will be made to ensure that all members are able to access the meeting.

Violations and Enforcement: Non-compliance with these guidelines may lead to immediate removal from the meeting, and any related chat shall be deleted forthwith. TNA reserves the right to take further action if deemed appropriate.

Disclaimers: TNA expressly disclaims any liability for the unauthorised actions or violations of these guidelines by participants.

Changes and Updates: TNA reserves the right to modify or update these guidelines at its sole discretion at any time. Participants are responsible for acquainting themselves with and adhering to the latest version of these guidelines.

By observing these comprehensive guidelines, all participants contribute to a legal, respectful, and focused environment, in alignment with the objectives of the TNA National Zoom Webinar
